

Fridge temperature record sheet

Month: _____ Location: _____ Checked by: _____

Date	Fridge 1 AM	Fridge 1 PM	Fridge 2 AM	Fridge 2 PM	Freezer AM	Freezer PM	Initials	Action taken
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31

Most kitchens keep fridges at 5 °C or below. The legal limit for chilled food in England, Wales and Northern Ireland is 8 °C. Freezers are usually kept at -18 °C or colder.

If a reading is out of range: check it again after 30 minutes. If it's still out, move food to a working fridge, call an engineer, and write down what you did and any food you threw away.